LIFE'S INSPIRATIONS: "...`This is why I speak to them in parables:

'Though seeing, they do not see; though hearing, they do not hear or understand'..." (Jesus, our God and Savior, in Matthew 13:13, the Holy Bible).

PEOPLE WHO ARE PREDESTINED NOT TO BE SAVED: Our "Life's Inspirations" for today is truly amazing, because it insists that there are people who, from the start of creation, were already predestined by Jesus, our God and Savior, not to be saved because they are souls denied of salvation and to whom He had been talking in parables.

If we are to take into account the other verses in Matthew 13, it is remarkable that Jesus made it clear that He was talking in parables because He precisely wanted to hide, from those who have been destined to an eternal life in hell, the very Word that would lead to Salvation.

From these verses, it is undeniable that there are people who were denied the gifted of understanding that Jesus is God and Savior, and is God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. These are the people who refuse to accept, receive, and believe that He is God and Savior, and are therefore already destined to suffer in the eternal life of worms and fire.

HOPE FOR THOSE WHO ARE ON THEIR WAY TO HELL: But be that as it may, because of the grace flowing from Jesus, He made it clear nevertheless in John 17 that there is still hope for people who have been blinded and made deaf, without understanding. They can still be saved, on one condition. What is the condition?

If those who have been blinded and made deaf will turn around and accept, receive, and believe that Jesus is God and Savior, they would somehow be saved. This is clear from John 3:16, John 17:20, John 8, Isaiah 7, Matthew 1, Luke 1 and John 1. Now, the question is: how can those who have been blinded and made deaf be made to turn around and then guided towards salvation?

Through the proclamation to be made by those chosen by God even before the beginning of time, before the creation of the world, and who have been sent by Jesus. These are the members of the Children of God Blood Kin of the Christ Church, or the Simbahang Anak ng Diyos Kadugo Ni Kristo, or AND KNK.

AND KNK: FULFILLING THE WORK OF SAVING SOULS THROUGH JESUS: It is clear that only those who are called Kadugo, or the Children of God Blood Kin of the Christ, who have been given the power to fulfill the proclamation to the deaf and the blind in understanding. Undeniably, therefore, the Children of God Blood Kin of the Christ Church, or AND KNK, would play a very important role here.

This arises from the truth that AND KNK is the Church that God put up in the Philippines to fulfill His end-time work—the work of proclaiming His Word and saving souls through the truth that Jesus is

God and Savior, and is God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

If we are to read the Bible very carefully, we will realize the gravity of what Jesus said as to people who have been blinded and made deaf in understanding, because 10 other verses in the
